THE DEEP MEANING OF MUTUAL SELF-GIVING IN MARRIAGE

This conference highlighted the fact that each of us is part of a dynamism described as BEING-FROM and BEING-TO in our lives with other people, especially our spouse.

For this encounter between the couple to be profound, it must consciously produce mutual acceptance and self-giving, thus giving way to "us".

That's what happened on the road to Emmaus.

1. Can each couple testify how they live the "Emmaus style" attitudes so that this meeting of you as spouses can happen?
2. Each couple should testify to how they live reciprocity, which is an essential condition for the encounter of two (or three, considering the presence of Christ) to bear fruit in the growth of conjugal love and spirituality, and in the sanctification of the couple.
